BUSTED!!

Tinky Winky "friend" tells all

Teletubby friends are in a "state of shock"

According to several reliable sources, the children's show character "Tinky Winky" has been seen in numerous photos in a "gay" archive owned by T.V.'s Ellen DeGeneres. Although not available for comment, a close "friend" of Ellen's was heard saying that the pictures clearly show Tinky Winky marching in numerous gay rights and pride parades. This appears to back up the Rev. Jerry Falwell's "itchy butt" claims of the purple-based, upside down triangle wearing homosexuality of the embattled children's character. Rumors are flying that over 100 pictures show the famous purple children's show character hugging males, young and old. "I don't think for one minute that this can prove that Tinky Winky is gay," said a BBS spokesman, who spoke on condition of anonymity. "Further, I don't believe that he even has reproductive organs."

Falwell Targets Teletubbies

Embattled character tried to bend him over at Tubby festival, says insider.

The Rev. Jerry Falwell has a different reason to hate the Teletubbies, says an insider of the famous preacher. "He was at a children's festival during the winter and the purple one, called Tinky Winky, offered to have alien relations with the reverend," says a close friend. Of course, we have no idea what this "alien realtions" consists of, but it appears that the fanatical right wingers are taking no chances. They are demanding the instant execution of the beloved children's show. "We should just decapitate the little bastard on national television during children's primetime so our kids can witness what happens to the homosexual sinners," said a church insider. Another churchgoer said "why can't we tie the little demonic homo to the back bumper of my '72 Ford pickup truck and drag him to the next county? They're even sayin' the little purple faggot is pro-choice!!!! Death to the pervert!"

Falwell Targets Teletubbies

This is an outrage to all God-fearing Christians. These purveyors of homosexuality and Satan must be destroyed to make way for the coming of Christ in the year 2000. Plus, my butt itches really bad, so getting rid of these idiots will be Preparation H for the soul.

This church-goer was not alone in his feelings about the strange characters on this incredibly popular children's show. A little church lady said that she was overcome by demonic forces when her grandson turned the program on one morning. "I knew right then and there that Satan and his homosexual forces were trying to convert my grandson into a psychopathic butt-reamer. It was all I could do to fight these demonic forces and turn the TV off, but we must fight the good fight." She went on to say she had little Bobby saw off Barbie's boobs with a band saw, as she was a symbol of prostitution and whoredom. "We are going to buy the entire Teletubbies stock at the local Toys-R-U and have a neighborhood Teletubby burning, along with some banned books, like the Goosepimples series." The controversy doesn't stop here, though. Rev. Falwell is convinced that Barbie is not a whore, rather she is a pimp, and Ken is her employee! "Did you ever notice how Barbie never works, has a massive wardrobe and drives a Corvette? This all points to one thing - this women's lib thing and Ken is just a male whore catering to the upper-crust of the doll world." He went on to say that he is gearing up to investigate the likes of Bert and Ernie, Barney and especially Captain Planet. "Did you ever notice how Captain Planet has green hair, is never seen with a female and wears a skintight suite?"

The Starsky & Hutch 1999 Very Gay series was a clincher for Rev. Falwell. He then realized the scope of this conspiracy.

Tinky Winky's career has long been marked by controversy, starting in the early 1990's. Real name unknown, Tinky Winky arrived in London without a work visa, and got a job washing glasses at a pub across from fashionable Hyde Park. Former fellow employee Jimmy Glickman recalls that "Winky was an odd sort, one never knowing if he was gay, straight, or even able to have sex." Glickman further elaborated that Tinky Winky had a habit of urinating at the same time everyday, and that odd noises would be heard during "tinkle time."

There have also been nasty rumors of Winky's party habits. "Ever since he became famous, he throws these all-night parties with all of his friends. Funny thing is, I've never seen him with a woman, so I don't know what's up," says a "neighbor." "He sings little songs all night long, and then we hear this weird humming sound at about 4:00 am."
